

THREE CINCINNATI BUILDINGS WIN OFFICE BUILDING OF THE YEAR AWARDS

Three building in Cincinnati were selected as winners in the 2009-2010 Office Building of the Year "TOBY" Awards Competition, sponsored by the Greater Cincinnati Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) in cooperation with BOMA International. Each property won in its specific category because of its outstanding physical structures, excellence in office building management, community involvement, and overall exceptional service.

The winners and their categories are:

UNDER 100,000 SQUARE FEET

Total Quality Logistics

Management Company: Total Quality Logistics (TQL)

CORPORATE FACILITY

Fidelity Investments

Management Company: Emcor Facility Services, Inc.

RENOVATED BUILDING

580 Building

Management Company: Colliers Turley Martin Tucker

The winners are now eligible to advance to the regional competition and upon winning there, will advance to the International competition. International winners will be honored in Long Beach, California in June 2010.